Parul needs help on menstruation Hygienic Materials

Parul is Adolescent girls with physical Disabilities. Parul is wheel chair user and she is one of the most vulnerable adolescent girls. Always they are looked down upon, neglected and deprived of most of their basic human rights.

	Menstruation is a biological process in women. But this is a big social taboo in our area. Parul is bound with social and family's restrictions such as:- not touching books, barrier doing home work and outside walking , not publicly discuss about this issue. Organization co workers are Provide the basic knowledge and aware to her menstruation hygiene .With support of Global Giving Foundation She received sanitary napkin on menstruation period and she manages her personnel hygienic. Now she is happy and grateful to Global giving foundation for support her menstruation hygienic materials and wants to continue.

*Now she is enjoying fulfill life independently. Use of Sanitary napkins will help them to remain healthy. Free from infections, more confident positively. Enhanced knowledge on menstruation will enlighten them against malpractices during menstruation. Parul leading the Community awareness raising activities through rally on the International Day of disabilities dated 3rd December 2018. But Most of the Adolescent girls still use old and dirty cloth pieces during periods and these cloths dry in behind and due to lack of menstrual hygiene awareness and difficult access of sanitary pads in rural places. Adolescent girls with disabilities in the rural areas don't management due to their habit and have no knowledge menstrual process and reproductive health.
